

In today's rapidly evolving healthcare landscape, leaders who blend experience, vision, and compassion are making the greatest impact. Among them is Jessica McCree Braddy, CEO of Magnolia Southern Care LLC in Jacksonville, Florida. With more than 15 years of experience in healthcare, Jessica has built her career from the ground up, guided by faith, perseverance, and an unwavering passion for serving others.

Her vision was simple but powerful: to create a home care agency where dignity, integrity, and compassion would serve as guiding principles. Today, Magnolia Southern Care has become a trusted name in North Florida, recognized for its professionalism, innovation, and client-centered care.

Beyond overseeing operations, Jessica is deeply committed to improving quality of life for her clients. She develops innovative care programs, ensures that service delivery meets the highest standards, and fosters a team culture rooted in compassion, dedication, and professionalism.
